

On Saturday 4 June 2005 we received a phone call that changed our lives irrevocably, “Henri has been attacked by a shark.” I knew: Our middle child was dead…

‘Henri hikes home’ is not only the story of Henri’s life and death. It is the story of our family which remained whole in the presence of abundant love, despite our brokenness.

It is a story of hope for everyone who is heart-broken. For everyone with immense sorrow. For everyone who carries a heavy burden of loss. And it is a song of praise to the God of life who never forsakes His children.
